

eLearning

Course descriptions

1. AutoCAD Essentials

This AutoCAD Essentials course introduces you to AutoCAD and teaches you to use the basic AutoCAD functions within MineRP CAD software.

2. AutoCAD Essentials 3D Mining Essentials

The objective of AutoCAD 3D Mining Essentials is to enable users to create a basic 3D drawing in the MineRP CAD software.

3. Introduction to MineForms

Learn how to use MineForms in this course which combines the concepts behind MineForms with easy to follow step-by-step guides. This course is aimed at users of MineForms.

4. MineRP CAD 4.0 (Generic)

The objective of MineRP CAD 4.0 is to enable users to create basic 2D drawings in the MineRP CAD software. The course will cover the essential core of the application; the course is mainly focused on students with no experience in any CAD applications, including Technical Drawing knowledge.

5. MineRP SpatialAnalyzer

This MineRP Spatial Analyzer course gives the user a basic understanding of SpatialAnalyzer and how to use the application effectively. The use of most of the basic functions and how to apply the latest features to the required environment setup will be shown.

6. MineRP SpatialPublisher

The aim of this course is to provide the user with a basic understanding of SpatialPublisher and how to use the application effectively. The user will be shown how to use the most basic functions, and how to apply the latest features to the required environment setup of the user.

7. MineRP SpatialDash

Introduction to SpatialDash - this short course introduces the user to the concept behind spatial data as well as how to use SpatialDash. Aimed at new users this course will have the user navigating and viewing data in record time.